HEARTH & BOUDOIR.

MRS. ROBERT ERSKINE ELY. (Née Scheffer.) Who was married last Wednesday.

Weddings -- Other Social Items.

In All Angels' Church, last Tuesday evening, Miss Alice Thorn Youmans, daughter of Mrs. Amelia Thorn Youmans, of No. 54 Morningside Park, and John Ware Remer were married. The bride wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed with duchess lace, a diamond pendant, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses. She was attended by Miss Florence A. Youmans, who were a gown of pale green erspe de chine and carried a large bunch of plak carnations.

A. Judson Hyatt acted as best man, and the ushers were Daniel P. Moore, Harrison D. McFaddin, Otto Grassi, Robert Maloney, William J. Shalekhaver and Dr. Charles M. Hickey, Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Alexander, Miss Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strobel, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Harrison, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Haughwout, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Coykendall, Mr. and Mrs. John Watts Warrin, Miss Louise B. Haughwout, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lorenzo Todd, Mr. and Mrs. John J. D. Bristol, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Purdy, Miss Katharine Birdsail, the Misses Murray, Mrs. William Raeburn Jenkins, J. Harry Nicholson, James Hopkins, Dr. and Mrs. George B. Palmer, Dr. and Mrs. W. Byfeld Short, Miss Mary Striker, Mr. and Mrs. George Wupperman, Mr. and Mrs. Rob-ert W. Smith, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Orlande Begart, Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. White, Miss Rushmore,

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Lipsett, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wildman, John R. Post, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thorn, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thora, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Guinaud, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Guinaud, Mrs. Mary Guinaud, Mrs. Charles Morgan Tyson, Mrs. Richard Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ray Stoughton, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Walton Mooney, Luis, Edmund and William Mooney, Frank Brokaw Mc-Lean, Townsend Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cocheu, Mr. and Mrs. Emil A. C. Keppler, Warren Beach Haughwout, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur De Witt Youmans, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Day, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Louis Jackson, Mrs. Robert Milbank, Mr, and Mrs. Horace B. Forman, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schollderfer, the Misses Knowiton, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. H. Terry, timer Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. H. Terry, Clement Fezandie, Miss Rensen, Mr. and Mrs. William C. De Mille, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Cowen, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. James Irvin Murray, John F. Harper, John S. Raymond, Richard Ware, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ware, Arthur Ware, Miss Anna Ware, Miss Gertrude McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Epbert Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. T. Irving Hadden, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sibley, Mr. and Mrs. Hichard Remer, Mr. Edward Schirmer, Miss Ada Remer, Mrs. Mary A. Peck, Miss Bessie Peck, Mr. Stephen Rusmmore Post, Captain and Mrs. John A. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. John C. De Mille, Mr. S. K. Thomas, Mr. Herbert Aldhaus, Mrs. and Mrs. Edwin W. Moore,

Thomas Fogarty, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Arrosmith, Dr. George A. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kirby, Mr. Thomas Lenane, Jr., Mr. Howard F. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Simonson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buckhout, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Q. W. Gaylor, Mr. and Mrs. Swartwout, Mr. Edmund Beguirre, Mr. arthur Gramm, Mr. Dean Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Swartwout, Mr. Edmund Beguirre, Mr. Arthur Gramm, Mr. Dean Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Swartwout, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mr. Arthur Mr. And Mrs. Horace Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mr. and Mrs. Martha Mrs. Horace Mrs. Ho

HOLDERNESS-STILLWELL

Yonkers society will be out in force Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when, at St. John's Church, Miss Alice Stillwell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. J. Stillwell, will be married to Lieutenant Roy Weber Holderness, of the 6th United States Cavairy, of Fort Keogh, Montana. The Rev. Dr. Andrew F. Underhill, rector of St. John's, will per-

Miss Stillwell will be attended by her sister, Miss Mary Stillwell, as maid of honor, and the following bridesmaids: Miss Alice Louise Havemeyer and Miss Fisie Eschmann, of Yonkers; the Misses Elsie and Maud Lowrey, of Philadelphia; Miss Anna Greble, of Governor's Island, and Miss Katherine Wisner, of Goshen, N. Y. The best man will be Lieutenant Francis Honeycutt, of Fort Hamilton. The wedding will be a military one, all the ushers Selma Gerstiey, Miss Aimée Pulaski and Miss Katherine Levy as bridesmalds. Miss Theresa Blum and Miss Blanche Loeb Hirsch were flower girls. Edward Meyer, of Chicago, was best man and the ushers were Milton Strauss, M. Goldschmidt, A. B. Friedman, Sydney Koblenzer, Ferdinand L. Shloss, Albert M. Kahn, J. Ainslee Bear and Robert Loeb.

Among the guests were Sigmond Frank, Mrs. Lessing Rosenthal, Mr. and Mrs. Max Hart, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Foreman, Daniel Scanion, Thomas Wagner, Charles Faye, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wolf, Charles Frank, Judge Mayer Sulzberger, Mr. and Mrs. Raiph Blum, Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Blum, Mr. and Mrs. William Mr. and Mrs. Steinam, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Loeb, Miss Laura Loeb, F. Grant Loeb, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Loeb and Mrs. Emil Loeb.

DANGLER-JACKSON.

The marriage of Miss Martha Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jackson, and Harry L. Dangler, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Dangler, took place last Monday in this city, the Rev. Dr. New-mark officiating. The bride were a white

(Née Jackson.)

A. Simonson

GRAY & WHITE HUMAN HAIR.

The most difficult branch of my business is the matching of gray, and As my stock is larger and more comprehensive than ever before, a perfect match both as to color and texture can be guaranteed. The assortment of colors is replete with all the fine shadings of slightly gray, mellow, cream colors, steel blue, iron gray and pure silver whites. My Summer hair goods are designed to meet warm weather requirements, being light in weight and guaranteed to retain their natural curl and wave under all climatic conditions.

LADIES' HAIRDRESSING, MARCEL WAVING, SHAMPOOING. Catalogue on request. Mail orders receive special attention.

FRENCH COFFEE POTS.

a shower bouquet of lilies-of-th-valley orchids. She was attended by Miss Lyilian Jackson, her sister, as maid of honor, and by Miss Nancy Neufield, Miss Irene Alter, and by Miss Nancy Neufield, Miss Irene alter, Miss Augusta Dangler, and Miss Evelyn Dangler, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmalds. Willard A Alter was best man, and Morris Mitchell Jackson, Mitch Ullman, Adolf Alter and Louis Rosenberg were ushers. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. M. Landan, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Charle, Mr. and Mrs. James Frank, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harries, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Laplan, Miss Claire Spingarn, Mr. and Mrs. James Jackson, Alex Lazarus, Mr. and Mrs. Charles SingGRAY HAIR er, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wasserman, Mrs. E. Dennison, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. E. Alter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gencler, Milton Landsberger, A. Bernhard Nierman, Joseph N. Goodman, Henry Guttag, Everett Jacobs, Dr. Henry M. Koles, Mrs. Nora S. Connolly and Mrs. O'Nelli Brett. After an extensive trip through the West the couple will live in this city.

The marriage of Miss Yetta Schmid and Dr. Benin Wolff took place last Tuesday at the Herrn-

Continued on seventh page.

SOME JUNE BRIDES.

MRS. JOHN WARE REMER. (Née Youmans.)

MRS. DAVID L. FRANK HARRY L. DANGLER (Photograph by Aimé Dupont.)

MISS ALICE STILLWELL Who will be married to Licutenant Roy Hole next Wednesday.
(Photograph by Weinig.)

FOR LITTLE MEN AND LITTLE WOMEN.

How She Lost the Piano.

FRANCES HARMER.

The speaker, whose pretty face was spoiled with an habitual scowl and pout, flounced away from her mother's gentle hand,

"But, dearle," expostulated the lady, "your father "Of course, "Come, dear."
"Est bear you sing, and he's so tired. A song "Opon" feel But Clarissa went out to talk to three or four of her girl "chums" on the porch, and the too gentle mother and the too indulgent father were left to wish in vain for a loving little daughter.

"Oh, mother," cried Clarissa, breathlessly, an hour later, "what do you think? A great ladysuch a great lady-a millionairess—is coming to our school in a day or two! And she is going to give school in a day of two? And she is a prize—a plano—to the girl who can sing the best. Oh, but I want it! A new plano! That old thing?—she glanced contemptuously at the little cottage plano, which had been one of her mother's wedding presents—"is always getting out of tune. Besides, this will be my very own. I shall keep it in my room!"

WILLIAM W. WESTRING, JR., of No. 6681/2 Fulton-st., Brooklyn, N. Y., one of our Cleverest Competitors.

Bendes, this will be my the proof.

Bhe practised constantly during the next two or three days-practised while her mother was trying to get an afternoon nap practised while her father was sleeping in the early mornings. She was particular about her dress, too, and attended to her pretty fingernalis with such care that she was not willing to soil them by doing anything to help her mother.

mother.

One evening, just three after the one on which my story opened, Mrs. Lane had occasion to go to the drug store at the corner. She found Clarlesa and her young friends seated at the ice cream soda fountain.

"Evening Mrs. Lane" said the druggist chest-

"Evening, Mrs. Lane," said the druggist, chear-fully. "Like you to meet a friend of mine." Just then an old woman, bent with years and wn by B. H. Theo, Mulch, age 16, of No. Dak Terrace, The Brenk, New-York City.

No, I won't! I just don't care to, and I won't!"

he speaker, whose pretty face was spoiled with habitusl scowl and pout, flounced away from er mother's gentle hand.

"Your fettes,"

"Of course she will," replied Clarissa's mother.

sic. se, she will," replied Clarissa's mother. "Come, dear."

"Don't feel like singing," said the girl, sulkily.
"Now, Clarissa," expostulated her mother, "Sing, like a nice little girl. Do, now."

"No, mamma, don't worry me," said Clarissa, affeetedly. "I can't sing when I don't feel like it.
Won't sing for that old frump, anyway," she added, hardly lowering her voice.

"Perhaps," put in the old woman, in a very tired way, "perhaps some other little girl will sing for me."

way, "perhaps some other little girl will sing for me."

Two good natured children volunteered. Neither of them sang particularly well, but they did their best. Clarissa forgot the incident very quickly. She could not know that her father had talked long and anxiously over her that night, and resolved to be very much more strict with her. "Children," said the teacher the next day, "the lady of whom I told you is coming in this morning." There was a rustle and a flutter as she entered. She was tall and stately, and magnificently dressed. One after another of the most musical sang, and at last it was Clarissa's turn.

She smiled up at the lady, confident of the beauty of her voice. And as she looked she started.

The tall, slender form seemed to shrink and dwarf. The lady threw an old black veil over her handsome bonnet; no other change was needed to show Clarissa that she stood before the druggist's "friend."

Show the rase that we will be some said on the upper register and her notes were flat. She could not deny that another girl, to whom the piano was awarded, fully deserved her whom the piano was awarded, fully deserved her prize.

She was in the mood to profit by her father's talk that night. Her vanity was severely crushed, and the ugliness of her faults was very patent to her quick, keen eyes.

"I know, daddy. I know," she said, penitently, when he had finished. "I mean to try. And I'll always sing for you," she added.
"It's a great deal better than the new piano," said the wife to her husband, when Clarissa had gone to bed.
"Yer." he answered. "She is going to cure herself of a bad habit."

HONOR LIST.

Each of these fifty little men and little women will receive a fine lead pencil marked in gilt letters with his or her name and the words "Honor List, New-York Tribune": 1, Bruce Berlin, No. 106 West 105th-st., New-York City; 2, Gilbert Bindewald, No. 72 Breslin-ave., Cohoes, N. Y.; 3, Bessie Brennan, PRIZE RHYME ILLUSTRATION. Drawn by Gertrude Darwin, of No. 1,824 28th-at.

Washington, D. O. No. 140 Fennimore-st., Brooklyn; 4, Herbert Bristol Glen Ridge, N. J.; 5, Grace E. Cadman, Box 278, Scuth Manchester, Conn.; 8, John C. Camner, jr., No. 90 William-st., East Orange, N. J.; 7, Madelone A. Campbell, No. 48 Thompson-ave., Bradford, Penn.; & Harold Conklin, No. 14 Echo-ave., New-Rochelle, N. Y.; 9, Ralph Cooper, No. 266 West 93dst., New-York City; 10, Ruth Doty, No. 408 East 17th-st., Flatbush, Brooklyn; 11, Arthur W. Ellis, 11th-st., Flatbush, Brooklyn; 11, Arthur W. Ellis, No. 168 Washington-ave., Kingston, N. Y.; 12, Anthony Feresen, No. 1,971 Facific-st., Brooklyn; 11 Thomas Flood, 224 Regiment Armory, 68th-st. and Broadway, New-York City; 14, T. M. Gallie, No. 209 North Mountain-ave., Upper Montolair, N. J.; 15, Margery Goddard, No. 17 Beaumont-ave., Wellingford, Conn.; 16. William Hartley, No. 127 Miltonst., Brooklyn; 17, Ruthorford M. Henderson, No. 309 South 7th-ave., Mount Vernon, N. Y.; 15, Edward Hensher, Cornwall, N. Y.; 13, Clayton J. Hill, No. 203 State-st., Mariden, Conn.; 5, Florence Hoster, No. 6 Prospect Terraes, Past Rutherford, N. ...

How to Win a Prize.

I, a box of water color paints or a book for the heatest three correct solutions of the choice of a boy's watch, a small camera, a baseball, a badge or a book for a natest three correct solutions of the animal rebus on this page.

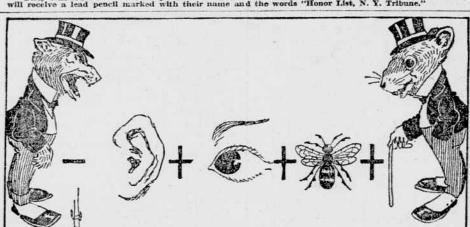

CONTEST NUMBER 3.—The choice of a baseball, a small camera, a boy's watch, a silver badge or a by for the neatest two correct solutions of the book rebus on this page.

CONTEST NUMBER 4.—The choice of a box of water color paints, a baseball, a mounted photograph, terling silver badge or a book for the neatest and hest two original drawings of some dog you know. Be sure to state your age, for it is always taken into consideration in awarding prizes.

Be sure to state your choice of prizes.

Be sure to send your work to Little Men and Little Women, New-York Tribune, before Wednesday, June as the contest closes on that day.

Fifty contributors who are not prize winners but who do excellent work will be put on the honor list and I receive a lead pencil marked with their name and the words "Honor List, N. Y. Tribune."

Animal Rebus.

Add and subtract as the signs above direct, and you will get a number of letters which, after you have changed them around, will spell the name of an animal. For the neatest three correct solutions of this puzzle we will give the choice of a boy's watch, a small camera, a baseball, a badge or a book. Send your work to Little Men and Little Women, New-York Tribune, before Wednesday, June 21.

21. Waldo P. Houchin, No. 83 West Milton-ave., Rahway, N. J.; 22. W. Furney Jeffreys, No. 75 Walnut-st. Newark, N. J.; 23 Charles R. Kerley, No. 213 West 168th-st., New-York City; 24. Olga Maria Kolff, Emerson Hill, Concord, Staten Island, N. Y.; 25, Amelia J. Labiskiner, No. 53 Jay-st., Albany, N. Y.; 26, Dorothy Leal, No. 949 Central-ave., Plainfield, N. J.; 27, Dorothy Leet, No. 261 West 129th-st., New-York City; 28, Donald D. Leonard, No. 32 Pleasant-ave., Ridgewood, N. J.; 29, Seward Le Fevre, No. 257 Winthrop-st., Brooklyn, N. Y.; 20, Tessie Levitin, No. 5,496 3d-ave., Brooklyn; 31, Edgar A. Lodge, No. 525 Monroe-st., Brooklyn; 32, Joan Mackenzie, No. 76 West Szd-st., New-York City; 33, Jean Maxwell, No. 83 Park-ave., Montelair, N. J.; 34, Randolph R. Payne, No. 307 Harkness-ave., Cleveland; 35, Theodore Rauscht, No. 5 Washington-ave., White Plains, N. Y.; 36, Bessie H. Riesberg, No. 954 8th-ave., New-York City; 37, Arthur Sahlstrom, White Plains Road, between Becker and Penfield aves., The Bronx, New-York City; 38, Pearl Shepherd, No. 20 Columbus-ave., Fort Chester, N. Y.; 39, L. Simonson, jr., No. 921 North Payson-st., Baltimore; 40, Louise Sinkovsky, No. 1,246 2d-ave., New-York City; 41, Anna R. Stewart, No. 374 Main-st., Catskill, N. Y.; 42, Marion Sutherland, No. 985 Ogden-ave., New-York City; 43, Roy Thompson, No. 191 Park-ave., New-York City; 44, Ruth Tysen, New-Dorp, Staten Island, N. Y.; 45, A. B. Vermilya, No. 537 West 149th-st., New-York City; 46, Grace B. Walker, No. 647 Classon-ave., Brooklyn; 47, Eloise Waltermire, Box 641, Chatham, N. Y.; 48, Dora Werner, No. 757 Glemmore-ave, Brooklyn; 49, Jerome S. Wertheimer, No. 158 West 89th-st., New-York City, and 50, George Zeluff, P. O. Box 255, Mariner's Harbor, Staten Island, N. Y.

Our Letter Box.

nice paint box you sent me. It is lovely. I am stowing it away until vacation arrives, and then I am going to try to paint some nice pictures. Hoping to win some more of your prizes. I am your thank-ful little ERANK. No. 305 East 90th-st., New-York, May 28, 1905.

Dear Editor: The camera which you sent me as a prize reached me safely and in good order. I wish to thank you vers much for it, as I have no doubt it will be a very pleasant summer companion. Yours truly. CAROLINE CHUBB. No. 222 Clermont-ave., Brooklyn, June 3, 1905.

book I received. I like it very much, and I hope to win other prizes. JOSEPH WILLIAM DRAKE. No. 418 West 51st-st., New-York.

Dear Editor: The book you sent me reached me safely some time ago. I have read it through, and like it very much. I am ashamed I have not thanked you before for your beautiful present, but I will thank you now. Your young friend, LOUIS C. ZAHNER.

No. 47 Crandall-st., Adams, Mass.

Dear Editor: It gave me as much surprise as pleasure to see my name as the prize winner in your paper last Sunday. I received the book Wednesday, and am delighted with it. I am reading it now.
Yours truly, WILLIAM BROWN CLARKSON.
No. 32 Winthrop-st., Brooklyn.

Dear Editor. I received the baseball, and thank you very much for it. It is very fine and worth winning. And I hope others will be as successful as I was. I remain your daily reader.

Pittsfield, Mass. KENNETH BACKMAN.

Dear Editor: It affords me great pleasure to thank you for my beautiful book, which I received on Tuesday, May 23, 1905. One of your contestants, No. 754 East 18th-st., Paterson, N. J.

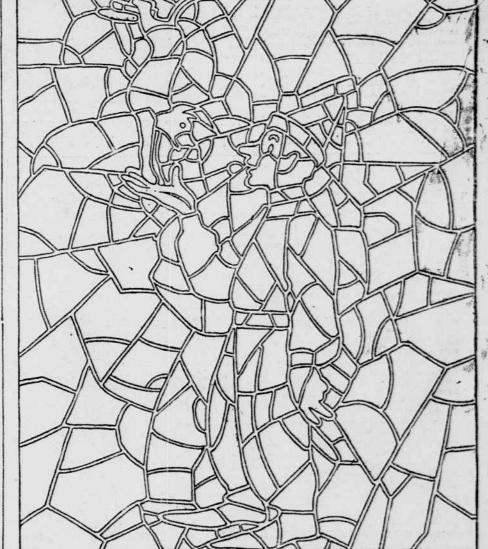

This picture illustrates the name of a well known noval. It was composed by L. Elsa Leober, fourteen years old, of No. 47 Fulaski-st., Brooklyn, N. Y., and was entered in our price robus centest of several weeks ago. According to agreement, we will pay if no this rabus.

For the nestert and best two solutions we will give the choice of a bex of weter celes petats.

a hasoball, a mounted photograph, a sterling silver badgs, or a book.

Bend your answers to Little Men and Lattle Weinen, Newwarts Tribune, before Wednames, June 14.

CIRCUS MAZE. Secreted somewhere in this tangle of lines is one of our old clown acquaintances, performing a difficult feat with his acrobatic dog. With a pen or pencil draw the outline of the group, and for the neatest three correct solutions we shall give the choice of a small camera, a boy's watch, a sterling gliver badge, a baseball, a box of water color paints or a book. Contest closes Wednesday, June 21. Address Little Men and Little Women, New-York Tribune.

Things to Think About.

Harold A. Cahen, fourteen years old, of No. 354 Central Park West, New-York City, is the prize winner in last week's contest. The little man or little woman who does the best work in to-day's "Things to Think About" will receive an interesting book. Send your solutions to Little Men and Little Women, New-York Tribune, before Thurs-

OMITTED WORDS PUZZLE. When you guess the omitted words in these quo-tations and put them in order, one below the other, the initial letters will spell the name of a month! "The tutted grow-toe and pale "And heavenly — with her milk-white lamb."

"Let the Redeemer's — he sung."
"Like a young — who has lent his plume."

DIAMONDA 1. A third of tar; a faithful friend; a citadel; a small barrel; a third of tar, 2. A fourth of deal; the terminus; a corner; a country; a blaze; alone; a fourth of deal.

CONNECTED SQUARES.

1. Part of a circle; a Japanese ounce; a kind of 2 To be able; a sirl's name; to tease.

Answers to Puzzles Published June 4. 1 . ZIGZAG SOLIEVR BLEVR DOUBLE ACROSTIC. DIAMONDS.

PRIZE REBUS WINNERS.

"Tennessee" is the name of the State which was illustrated by the prize rebus on our page two weeks ago. The prize winners aret Alfred Wyker, fourteen years eld, of Goshen, N. Y., who asks for a baseball? Natalie Ahrense, twelve years eld, of No. 29 Brownell-st., Stapleton, Staten Island, who chooses a silver badge, and Clesson B, Atherton, ten years old, of No. 88 Charles-st., Springfield, Mass., who will also receive a hadge.

FOND OF BIRDS. A Mainbore of the human reservations as inches and carry that eased favorites out to walk with those that their down